STAGE STORIES.

Amusement Announcements, Lobby Chat ter---Odd Bits of Gossip.

The happy, satirical farce comedy, Hoyt's "A Texas Steer," will be given at the opera house to-night by practically the orginal company that made the piece one of the greatest theatrical success of the past decade. In "A Texas Steer" the misery of the life of office-seekers as told by a colored applicant from the newly elected Congressman's district is considered one of the cleverest hits that has graced the stage in many years. Hoyt's faculty of going from sublime to the ridiculous in dialogue and situation is as amazing as it is amusing and entertaining, and more truisms are brought out in his productions than in the work of any other American playwright. "A Texas Steer" ought to prove an immense attraction

Fred Alexander Burned Alive by a Mob at Leavenworth, Kan.

The Victim, Who Was Charged With Assaulting a Girl and the Murder of Pearl Forbes, Died Protesting His Innocence.

Leavenworth, Kan., Jan. 16.-Fred Alexander, the Negro, who Saturday evening attempted to assault Miss Eva Roth, and who was supposed to have assaulted and killed Pearl Forbes in this city in November last, was Tuesday afternoon taken from the sheriff's guard and burned at the stake at the scene of his crimes, half a dozen blocks from the center of the city. Probably 8,000 people witnessed the lynching.

At 5:15 o'clock Alexander was brought to the scene of the murder of Pearl Forbes, at the corner of Lawrence avenue and Spruce street. "You are going to kill me, whatever run up against the man who did. I know it ain't any use to say so, for do it."

The men standing behind him shoved him from the wagon, and the roar from the wagon drowned every other sound. The Negro was quickly driven down the embankment to the pile of wood, with his hands shackled. The first thing done was to plant the railroad iron upright in the mud. This was made fast to cross irons visit his house again, as he did not firmly bound to the upright iron with wish such a man in his family. From wire. Around the improvised stake wood and boards were piled. To this about 50 years of age and a well rethe man was dragged and chained in a standing position to the upright railroad iron. Coal oil was then poured over him and the match touched to him.

As the flames leaped about him Alexander turned ghastly pale and for the first time realized that death was near. He clasped his hands together and began to swing to and fro. while the crowd yelled.

In less than five minutes he was hanging limp and lifeless by the chains that bound him. As soon as the establishment of jury trials. the crowd saw that life was extinct it began slowly to disperse. There were hundreds of the morbid, however, who stayed to the last.

Men kept piling on wood all the time until about 7 o'clock, when the flames were allowed to die down. From 5 to 8 o'clock there was a continuous stream of people going to the scene of the burning. These were persons who had been unable to get away from their work in the afternoon, but were determined not to miss seeing the awful spectacle.

The remains were viewed by thousands, and up to the time they were taken away the carriages and vehicles were continually passing by the spot. No expressions of regret or pity are heard from any source.

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 16 .- Gov. Stanley, Tuesday night announced that he would offer a reward of $500 for the apprehension of any implicated in apprehension of any one implicated in the lynching of Alexander at Leavenworth. The governor further stated that he was sorry that he could not offer a larger reward, but the law allows him to offer only $500. He said that he was also going to instruct the attorney general at cace to investigate the conduct of Sheriff Everhardy in connection with the lynching, and if it was found that the sheriff had in any way violated his trust as an official, proceedings would

DEATH OF GOV. MOUN

Died Suddenly at His Apartments After Returning From a Walk.

A Few Minutes Later He Said to His Wife: "I Am Sick: It's My Heart. Send For a Doctor at Once."

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 17.-James A. Mount, who retired Monday at aoon from the office of governor of the state of Indiana, died very suddenly at 6:45 o'clock Wednesday night in his apartments at the Denison He had attended a reception tenlered by Mrs. Mount to a number of prominent ladies of the city during the afternoon, and shortly after the guests departed he started out for a walk. Upon his return he said nothing about being ill, and after removing his hat and overcoat sat down to read. In a few minutes he turned to his wife and niece, who were in the room, and said: "I am sick; it's my heart. Send for a doctor at once."

After taking off his collar and tie and assisting her husband to reach his bed, Mrs. Mount went out into the corridor, where she met Senator and Mrs. Charles C. Binckley, of Richmond. She was wringing her hands, and said: "Mr. Mount is very ill. Please get a doctor as quickly as possible." Dr. O. S. Runnells was called, and found those in attendance at Mr. Mount's bedside chafing his feet and hands in an effort to revive him. He knelt down and listened for a heartbeat, and, rising on his feet, said: "You can do nothing more for him; he is dead."

In the lobby of the Denison at the time of the announcement of the death were gathered a number of prominent politicians of the state, and at once many kindly offers of assistance were sent to Mrs. Mount. During the forenoon Mr. Mount visited the office of his former private secretary and was in consultation with him for several hours. In the afternoon he made a speech before the Indiana State Wool Growers' association and was elected president of the association.

Word was at once sent to Gov. Durbin, who was at Anderson, and instructions were issued at once ordering the issuing of a proclamation. Three children besides Mrs. Mount are the surviving members of the family. The eldest child is Mrs. Chas. Butler, who lives on a farm in Montgomery county adjoining that of her father. Mrs. John W. Nicely, who is now at Beirut, Syria, and Rev. Harry M. Mount, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Connersville, are the other

During his term of office Gov. Mount was attacked several times by fainting spells but none of them was serious. Col. Wilson, who was in the taken. The woman's husband is in office with him during his term of office, said Wednesday night:

"Gov. Mount was worked to death. His close application to the duties of his office impaired his health, and with Mrs. Abel, was arrested Wednes- until some of the burden is removed from the shoulders of the governors of Indiana the exaction of the office will kill anybody."

Sketch of His Life.

James Atwell Mount, ex-governor of Indiana, was a native of the state, having been born in Montgomery county, March 23, 1843. His father, Atwell Mount, was a native of Virginia, and moved to Indiana in 1828. Ex-Gov. Mount was one o. 12 children. Gen. DeWet Has Joined Forcet, With the Transvaal Commandoes-Another Attack Expected.

London, Jan. 17.—The important report, received from Johannesburg that Gen. DeWet has crossed the Vaal and joined forces with the Transvaal commandoes, if true, probably means the concentration of 7,000 Boers, with several guns, for another big attack.

There is a rumor current in Cape Town that several Boer leaders are urging an attack upon the mines. It has been long understood that Gen. DeWet has been anxious to join the invaders in Cape Colony and this rumor may be spread to cover an attempt to break southward.

As an outcome of the fact that the Boers in several instances have worn khaki, a government notice has been promulgated in Pretoria prohibiting civilians from wearing khaki and notifying all persons who wear this costume, which is likely to be mistaken for the British uniform, that they will render themselve liable to arrest and imprisonment.

The war office issued no fresh news Wednesday.

The response to the government's call for volunteers is said to be very brisk in both London and the provinces. Defensive measures in South Africa proceed apace. Seven thousand men have joined the city guard in Cape Town and 3,000 others have volunteered in the suburbs.

THE ISLAND OF PANAY.

Delgado, the Commander-in-Chief of Iloilo, Surrenders.

This Signifies an End to Organized Armed Resistance in That Territory-The News Gives Satisfaction in Washington.

Washington, Jan. 15 .- Gen. MacArthur reports the surrender of Delgado, commander-in-chief of Iloilo province, Panay. He also reports that other important surrenders are expected during the next few days. Gen. MacArthur's cablegram to the war department is as follows:

"Delgado, commander-in-chief of Iloilo province, Panay, surrendered on January 11 to Brig. Gen. Robert P. Hughes, with four officers, 21 men and 14 rifles. His command is much scattered. Other surrenders are expected during the next few days; 1mportant; signifies the end of organized armed resistance in Iloilo province, Panav."

The dispatch gave much satisfaction to the war department, although the command surrendered by Delgado is not a large one. It also was noted by the officials that the assurances were for the end of "organized armed resistance," indicating that there was considerable of the unorganized marauding still in progress.

Washington, Jan. 15 .- Gen. Greely, chief signal officer, U. S. A., has received a dispatch from Lieut. Col. MILLIONAIRE'S WEDDING.

Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt United in Marriage to Miss Elsie French at Newport, R. I.

Newport, R. I., Jan. 15.-Miss Elsie French was united in marriage at noon Monday to Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, the ceremony taking place in the Zabriskie Memorial Church of St. John the Evangelist. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Francis Ormond French and is related to a number of the leading families of New York. The bridegroom is the second son of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt, from whom he inherited the bulk of the millions.

Just as the lines of the Lohengrin march breathed softly forth the two clergymen, Rev. George F. Beatty, rector of the church, and Rev. G. Brinley Morgan, rector of Christ church at New Haven, entered from the side door, followed by the bridegroom and his brother, Reginald Vanderbilt, the best man.

At the same time the bridal proession started up the main aisle, the ashers leading, followed by the four bridesmaids.

Eight personal friends of the bridegroom acted as ushers. They were Messrs. Worthington Fitzhugh Whitehouse, Frederick Martin Davies, Robert Livingstone Gerry, Ord Preston, Ernest Iselin, Wm. P. Borden, Potter Palmer, Jr., and W. Bayard Cutting,

The bridesmaids were Miss Pauline French, the bride's niece; Miss Elsa Bronson, daughter of the late Fred. erick Bronson; Miss Isabel C. Stillman, daughter of Mr. James Stillman, of New York, who shortly will be come the bride of Percy Avery Pockefeller, and Miss Edith Gray, daughter of Judge Gray, of Albany.

This was a love match pure and simple, for the bride and bridegroom have been fast friends since they were childish playmates. The estimated cost of the wedding is $354,000, including $200,000 worth of wedding presents. The bride's trousseau cost $15,000 and the wedding dress $5,000.

PERVERSITY.

My father frows, my mother sighs, My grandam, with begoggled eyes, Recites me maxims, wondrous wise, On prudence and gentility. They all of Lydia love to prate As my one matrimonial fate: Her virgin charms they celebrate With ceaseless volubility.

Of how she shines in equal ways At French or German—sings and plays, Embroiders, paints—for days and days, Eulogiums do I hear anew. And then her parents' wealth galore, Their steeds and coaches by the score, Their Newport villa-nay, still more, Their palace on Fifth avenue.

But ah, in vain my kindred plead! The girl I love, the girl I need, The girl I'll dare to wed, indeed, Unmoved by all caste's mummeries, is but a sempstress, young and shy, Whose glittering needle—what know I? Its lexterous art may sometimes ply On Lydia's cobweb flummeries.

With Phyllis in her Harlem flat (Shabby, and five floors high at that) I'd rather spend an hour of chat And watch her smile's coy trickeries, Than dance till dawn in Lydia's thrall, At some Delmoniconian ball, Though light along the floor should fall Her footstep as Terpsichore's! Edgar Fawcett, in the Puritan.

"Matter enough," answered Mrs. Goddard, clenching her hands and grating her teeth together. "Matter enough. He has married the girl, but has already-already fallen in love with her, and now he wants to throw me over."

"Well, you must not draw me into that. Jeanne!"

"I shall draw you into nothing, but I shall expect you to hold your tongue.'

"would he hold his if-if you resorted to-if you killed her?" asked Mrs. No.an in a low, quivering voice. They had now returned to the lit-

"Are you sure?" "With her out of the way, yes."

There was a dead silence in the room. The outer circle of the underground railway ran beneath the garden, and a passing train shook the room like an earthquake.

"What are you going to do now?" asked Mrs. Nolan, curiously, eyeing the telegraph blank.

Half an hour later the major met Blanche in the long glass-roofed conservatory. She held a small wateringpot and was sprinkling some rare roses. As he came in she put down the pot and kissed him.

"Isn't the perfume in here delicious?" she exclaimed. "I feel as if I were eating it like an impalpable ice made for the delectation of the gods."

"Why did you not go to see Dr. Fleming, as you promised?" Goddard asked, as he stroked her beautiful hair, which hung loose down her back, after the manner she had worn it during her school days. "Because he won't be in New York till Thursday," she laughed. "I really feel as if I am going to survive till then. I noticed in the Herald that he has again been delayed a few

A NOTABLE DUEL IN 1836.

Two Slaves Fought in It, One Being Disabled by a Shot

"From time to time," said an old resident, "I have noticed references to duels fought in the vicinity of Washington years ago, but the newspapers do not seem to know that one was fought between two colored men, I believe slaves, about 1836.

These were Jack Magruder and John Bell, who had married sisters and were both hired out by their masters to residents of Capitol Hill. In the course of time each became a father, and as every crow thinks his own coat the blackest, each father thought his child the smartest, and they often had words as to which was the finest baby.

"Finally they were about to fight. This occurred at a store, and the suggestion was made that as an insult had been given the aggrieved party should demand satisfaction on the field of honor and not resort to brute force when they could fight like gentlemen.

"The suggestion was adopted. Each chose a friend, and the arrangements being made the insult was wiped out with a little blood. The time set was four p. m.; place, the Leech pond, or the Tiber, above K street; weapont, guns; distance, 30 paces. It had been whispered among the boys that the event would occur and a number were there, I with others.

"Both showed up and exchangea fierce glances before being placed in position. Then the weapons were handed them and at the word, so promptly had they pulled the triggers, there was but one report, and each was puzshots and each claimed to have taker deliberate aim, and were dissatisfied "The guns, which were loaded at first with a harmless substance, were passed to the seconds for recharging, and in one a few shots were dropped. Then at the word both fired, and a shot taking effect in the right wrist of one it stopped further shooting; each of the principals feeling elated that before witnesses they had not shown the white feather, but had acted as gentlemen. "They retired from the field amid the plaudits of the spectators, the question as to who owned the smartest baby still undetermined."

A SULT OF PAINT.

Primitive Apparel That Was Worz When Mankind Was in Its Infancy.

Wrting "About Clothes" in St. Nichclas, George MacAdam sketches the pedigree of the full dress of the present day. Long, long ago, he says, when mankind was still in its babyhood, some hairy lord of creation happened to glance into a quiet pool, and saw mirrored in the water his own image. Comparing himself with the birds and beasts, he saw that he was plain and dingy; and he became envious of the brilliant-hued feathers of the birds, and the striped and spotted furs of the beasts. One day he discovered a bed of ocher. Sticking his finger into this bright-colored dirt, he saw that his finger became colored like the dirt. No doubt he stared in wonder for a long while at his strangely colored finger; and there gradually crept into his simple mind an idea which must have made him laugh for joy.

"Ha, ha!" he cried. "Here's my chance to give myself a new complexion-to make myself as bright and gaudy as Mother Nature has made the birds and the beasts." So he daubed himself from head to foot with different-colored cehers until he was bright and many-colored. This N. Y., U. S. A. ### Attempted Suicide.

N. A., Brown, a traveling salesman for an electrical novelty house of Chicago, attempted to end his earthly existence by way of the gas route at the Fordham Hotel yesterday morning. Mr. Brown, who is a very distinguished and handsome gentleman, registered at the Fordham on last Tuesday, and was assigned to a room. There was nothing in his actions during his stay which caused anyone connected with the hotel to have any suspicion of his motives. On Wednesday night he retired about ten o'clock. Yesterday morning the colored porter knocked at his door, and receiving no response, he opened the door and entered. Mr. Brown was lying upon the bed in his night clothes. A Corn and cob meal for sale—a good large piece of rubber hose had been connected to the gas burner, one end of it being tied so as to prevent a kink stopping the flow of gas. The other end was brought under the bed clothes and securely fastended in his mouth, he first having covered his head with a pillow. UNEED good goods, and u'lwant more flow of gas, notified Landlord Connors, Miss Sallie Layres is quit who hurriedly sent for Doctors Kenney and Sweeney. Upon their arrival they found Mr. Brown in the last stages of asphixiation, but went to work heroicly in an effort to save him. After three hours of constant work, which comprised artifical respiration. hypodermic injections and forced inhalation of prepared oxygen, the patient was enabled

You Do, or You Don't Need Glasses.

The eye being a rather delicate organ, great care should be exercised in the selection of proper glasses. Many believe that glasses should be resorted to only when the sight becomes so defective as not to be able to do without. This is a great mistake which must be combatted Whenever there is unmistakable evidence of the need of their aid, they should be used A neglect of this rule sometimes produces mischief which results in serious trouble if the course be p ersisted in. Our Dr C. H. It is Possible to Telephone From New York to London.

The Method Explained dy the In ventor, Who Has Sold His Interest o the Bell Telephone Co. For $500,000.

New York, Jan. 15 .- According to the statements of Michael Idvorsky Pupin, adjunct professor of mechanics in Columbia university, the Ameriean Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co, has paid him, instead of the $200,-900 as originally stated, nearly $500,-300 for his recent invention of a system by which ocean telephony is made possible. This is in addition to the annual royalty of $15,000 a year during the life of the patents. Prof. Pupin returned to Columbia Sunday from an out-of-town trip, and was greatly surprised to learn that his invention had been made public. "The Bell Co. has tested the invention for six months," he said, "and express themselves as perfectly satisfied with it. The question of telephony is solved from a scientific standpoint, and there only remains the commercial question.

"There is no doubt that as soon as the financial part of the matter is settled it will be perfectly possible to telephone to San Francisco and London and to send cable messages to Europe at far less cost than at pres-

Prof. Pupin said that it was almost impossible to give offhand an explanation that would not be too full of technicalities to be easily understood. "Briefly," the professor said, "the question had been to overcome resistance. In the present ocean cables the current has so many obstacles to battle with that it is comparatively tin Kuhns, the desperado, turned slow in traveling, and becomes very weak before it reaches its destination 3,000 miles away." Prof. Pupin after long experiments finally discovered that the insertion of citht induction coils to every mile of vire would overcome this resistance, and messages could be sent over the cable at a much faster

By this means every time the current begins to slacken its strength it will neet one of the coils, which will give it renewed impetus till it reaches the next coil, and so on. It is practieally a relay method of supplying strength. The new system will require new cables, which will involve an enormous outlay. It is this feature only which is retarding the work A scuffle resulted, during which the at present.

The cables will require no greater strength in electricity and no different transmitters from those used now. His invention, when applied to iand wires, he explained, will enable messages to be sent much further Riots Between American without relaying than at present, and will make conversation between New York and San Francisco easy.

"I am so Glad you are well, Dear Sister."

This picture tells its own story of sisterly affection. The older girl, just budding into womanhood, has suffered greatly with those irregularities and menstrual difficulties which sap the life of so many young women.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound can always be relied upon to restore health to women who thus suffer. It is a sovereign cure for the worst forms of female complaints,-that bearing-down feeling, weak back, falling and displacement of the womb, inflammation of the ovaries. and all troubles of the uterus or womb. It dissolves and expels tumors from the uterus in the early stage of development and checks any tendency to cancerous humors. It subdues excitability, nervous prostration, and tones up the entire female system.

Could anything prove more clearly the efficiency of Mrs. Pinkham's Medicine than the following strong statement of Grace Stansbury?

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:-I was a sufferer from female weakness for about a year and a half. I have tried doctors and patent medicines, but nothing helped me. I underwent the horrors of local treatment, but received no benefit. My ailment was pronounced ulceration of the womb.

I suffered from intense pains in the womb and ovaries, and the backache was dreadful. I had ovaries, and the backache was discussed leucorrhea in its worst form. Finally, I grew so weak I had to keep my bed. The pains were so hard as to almost cause spasms. When I could endure the pains no longer, I was given morphine. My memory grew short and I gave up all hope of getting well. Thus I dragged along. To please my sister I wrote to Mrs. Pinkham for advice. Her answer came, but meantime I was taken worse and was under the doctor's care for a while "After reading Mrs, Pinkham's letter, I concluded to try her medicine. After taking two bottles I felt much better; but after using six bottles I was cured. All of my friends think my cure almost miraculous. I thank you very much CRACE B STANSBURY for your timely advice and wish you prosperity in your noble work, for surely it is a blessing broken-down women. I have full and complete faith in the Lydia E. Pinkham Vegetable Compound."—GRACE B. STANSBURY,

A SHAFT OF LIGHT.

Prof. Pickering Makes a Statement in Regard to the Alleged Signal From Mars.

Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 16.-Prof. Pickering, of the Harvard observatory, Tuesday said: "Early in December we received from the Lowell observatory in Arizona a telegram that a shaft of light had been seen to project from Mars (the Lowell observatory makes a specialty of Mars) lasting 70 minutes. I wired these facts to Europe and sent out neostyle copies through this country. The observer there is a careful, reliable man, and there is no reason to doubt but that the light existed. It was given as from a well-known geographical point of Mars. That was all. Now the story has gone the world over. In Europe it is stated that I have been in communication with Mars, and all sorts of exaggerations have sprung up. Whatever the light was we have no means of knowing. Whether it had intelligence or not no one can say. It is absolutely inexplicable."

FIFTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

Sécond Session.

Washington, Jan. 12.—Senate—Mr. Bacon (Ga.) made a vigorous attack on that portion of the army reorganization bill which confers upon the president discretionary power to increase the strength of the army to the maximum limit fixed by the bill. An amendment opening the way to the appointment of volunteer officers to grades as high as that of captain the regular establishment was adopted. Just before adjournment Mr. Carter (Mont.) called up the bill apportioning the representatives of the United States among the several states. Without debate it was passed precisely as it came from the house. House-Not since the 51st congress has the house passed as many private pension bills at a single sitting as it did Friday. In all 170 special pension bills were passed at Friday's session. The most important was one to increase the pension of Gen. Americus V. Rice from $36 to $100. The senate had passed a bill to increase his pension to $60, and the house raised it to Washington, Jan. 14.-Senate-No legislative business of importance was transacted by the senate Saturday. The session was devoted to services held in memory of the late Senator Cushman K. Davis, of Minnesota. Mrs. Davis, accompanied by some friends, was in the executive gallery of the senate.

House-The House devoted Saturday to a continuation of the debate upon the river and harbor appropriation bill, which was interrupted Friday by private bill day. The main feature was an elaborate speech by Mr. Catchings (Miss.) in defense of the improvement of the Lower Mississippi river. Mr. Boering (Ky.) made an earnest plea for an appro-priation for the Upper Cumberland river, which, notwithstanding it had been surveyed and declared navigable, had been ignored by the committee in making up its bill.

Washington, Jan. 15 .- Senate Sen. ator Berry (Ark.) offered the following amendment as an additional section to the arm reorganization bill: "That within ten days after this bill shall become a law the president of the United States shall issue his proc lamation, declaring that the United States hereby disclaims any disposition or intention to exercise sovereignty, jurisdiction or control over the Philippine islands, except for the pacification thereof; and asserts its determination, when that is accomplished, to leave the government and control of the islands to their peo-

House-The house Monday postponed District of Columbia business until next Monday, and proceeded with the river and harbor bill. Good progress was made, 59 of the 97 pages of the bill being completed.

Washington, Jan. 16. - Senate -Some progress was made Tuesday by the senate in the consideration of the army reorganization bill. Mr. Bacon's amendment striking out of the bill the discretionary authority conferred upon the president to increase the size of the army was laid on the table by the decisive vote of 39 to 20.

House-The house spent another day on the river and harbor bill without completing it. Twenty-six pages were disposed of Tuesday. The senate resolution to appropriate $7,000 to enable the secretary of the senate to pay the expenses of the inauguration of the president and vice president, March 4, was taken up, and precipitated a lively discussion because it did not recognize the house as a participating factor in the inauguration ceremonies. The resolution was recommitted, with instructions to report back a resolution providing for inaugural ceremonies under the auspices of a joint committee of the senate and the house.

Washington, Jan. 16 .- Senate-An agreement was reached Wednesday by which a vote will be taken upon the pending army reorganization bill on Friday at 4 p. m. Speeches in opposition to the bill were delivered by Mr. Allen (pop., Neb.), Mr. Teller (silver, Col.) and Mr. Butler (pop., N. C.). Mr. McCumber (rep., N. made an argument in support of the measure. The feature of the debate was the denunciation of the practice of hazing at the West Point military academy.

House-The river and harbor appropriation bill was passed Wednesday by the house. The bill has been under consideration for over a week and has been assailed from many quarters, but its friends have stood solidly by it and defeated every amendment to which the river and harbor committee would not agree. The bill passed practically as it came from the committee. It carries slightly less than $50,000,000, of which $23,000,000 is in direct appropriations.

THE NEELY CASE.

Supreme Court Decides That the Prisoner Must Be Surrendered to the Cuban Authorities.

Washington, Jan. 15.-The United States supreme court Monday rendered a decision in the Neely extradition case. The report held that Neely was subject to extradition and must be surrendered to the Cuban authorities. The court held that Cuba is foreign territory, our only purpose in the war with Spain being to free the Cubans from Spanish domination. The decision was based upon the act to be constitutional.

Administered by a Heroic Messenger Boy to a Cowardly and Stingy Man.

There was a trifling fire in a west side street the other day which caused a good deal of excitement and incidentally gave a fat man a lesson in courtesy. The fire started in the apartments where the man and his mother lived. The man started about the time the fire did and got down four flights of stairs to the street before his mother knew what was up. When she discovered the fire she promptly fainted, says the New York Mail and Express.

Meanwhile the fat man stood in the street yelling: "Save my mother! Save my mother!" A messenger boy who was passing stopped, saw the smoke, ran up the stairs, aroused the woman and brought her out in safety. The neighbors cheered and the fat man looked uncomfortable.

"Here, boy," he whispered. "Here's a quarter for you."

The boy's face expressed his disgust.
"Aw, save it," he said, "and buy yourself some nerve food."

THEY DROP FROM THE SKY.

Shooting stars vary in weight from 30 grains to seven pounds.

In most cases of luminous meteors a train of light many miles in length is left behind.

One characteristic of meteoric stones is the fused black crust, like varnish, with which the surface is coated. There are numerous records and stories in all ages and countries of the fall of stones from the sky; but until recent times they ware treated by philosophers as instances of popular incredulity and superstition. Meteoric stones have in times past been regarded with religious veneration. At Emesa, in Syria, the sun was wroshiped under the forn, of a black stone, reported to have fallen from heaven. The great stone of the pyramid of Cholula, in Mexico, has a similar history.

From the height and apparent diameter, the actual diameter of the largest fireballs is estimated to vary from about 500 feet to half a mile. One or two instances are on record where the train of the fireball continued shining for an hour after the bod; disappeared.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is often ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. # ITCH IS TORTURE.

Eczema is caused by an acid humor in the blood coming in contact with the skin and producing great redness and inflammation; little pustular eruptions form and discharge a thin, sticky fluid, which dries and scales off; sometimes the skin is bard, dry and fissured. Eczema in any form is a tormenting, stubborn disease, and the itching and burning at times are almost unbearable: the acid burning humor seems to ooze out and set the skin on fire.
